TCDA Media Policy

At the Travis County District Attorney's Office, we value the press as important partners in sharing information about our activities and connecting with the community. The TCDA's Public Information Office handles all press inquiries from members of the media who are seeking interviews and information.

Under our policy, Travis County District Attorney's Office employees and contractors are not authorized to speak directly with the media on behalf of the District Attorney's Office or about the specific activities of the office unless authorized by the District Attorney or First Assistant.

We strive to respond to media requests in a professional, timely, and accurate way while adhering to relevant laws, ethical obligations, and the principles of justice outlined in the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct.
